

THREE URNS AND A PRAYER, by Dan Haughey, a new 10-minute Comedy
... featured in the 2020 Quad City New Play Festival!

Clayton and Daphne, seasoned husband and wife, decide to spread the ashes of three pets from their urns. Struggling with “letting-go”, the couple hilariously debates obsessive issues of family, relationships, pets, and marriage. The stubborn urns won’t open. Clay engages in a battle royal with them, leading to revelations and a new commitment to life. Two Characters: 1 Woman, 1 Man. One-Act, One scene. The action is quick, in a unit set.
